SWBSS 2017 - First announcement

Forth International Conference on Salt Weathering of Buildings and Stone Sculptures (SWBSS)

20 - 22 September 2017 in Potsdam (D) – University of Applied Sciences Potsdam (FHP)

1. General information

The first International Conference SWBSS was held in Copenhagen (Denmark) in 2008, organised by Lisbeth M. Ottosen. It was followed by SWBSS 2011, organised by Ioannis Ioannou in Limassol (Cyprus) and SWBSS 2014, organised by Hilde De Clercq in Brussels (Belgium) and us.

The German association of scientists “Salze im Kulturgut e.V.” is pleased to announce that the forth conference SWBSS 2017 will be organised by Steffen Laue and colleagues in Potsdam in September 2017, in collaboration with KIK-IRPA (Brussels).

The conference aims to bring together conservators, restorers, engineers, architects, academics, students and experienced researchers and hence contributes to the promotion of research and development within the field of salt weathering of porous materials.

2. Main topics

Salts on valuable monuments and sculptures are still today a major problem in preservation caused mainly by environmental influences. Therefore the conference will focus on:

- Environmental aspects related to salt sources
- Transport phenomena and salt crystallisation
- Measurement techniques
- Desalination techniques
- Conservation issues
- Case studies

3. Contributed papers

Instructions for the submission and preparation of abstracts and contributed papers will be given in the second announcement. The papers will present up-to-date results for scientists and practising conservators and ensure efficient transfer of knowledge in the field.
